

Call for Symposia

Dear FAONS members,

We are delighted to announce that the Federation of Asian-Oceanian Neuroscience Societies (FAONS) is now accepting proposal for symposia for the FAONS-Japan Neuroscience Society (JNS) 2024 Joint Conference, taking place in Fukuoka, Japan, from July 24th – 27th, 2024.

For each accepted symposium we provide financial support to facilitate symposium organizers in attracting outstanding invited speakers. Please complete and submit the Symposia Proposal Form by October 24th, 2023. They will be reviewed by the Program Committee and the accepted symposia will be submitted to JNS. The successful applicants will be confirmed in November 15th, 2023.

Symposia Guidelines (see the information attached in detail)

- ✓ Symposia to be proposed by the members of FAONS member societies.
- ✓ Proposals covering a novel topic not represented in previous FAONS meetings as well as with high diversity, including gender (balance of male and female speakers), career stage (early, mid and established investigators) and geographical location of the speakers, will be preferred.
- ✓ For each accepted symposium we provide free registration plus financial support depending on the composition of speakers to facilitate symposia organizers in attracting outstanding speakers.

Important Dates

- ✓ Call for Symposia will be closed on October 24th, 2023.
- ✓ Successful applicants will be confirmed in early November 15th, 2023.

Proposals and any questions should be addressed to:
